

Bill Rice Attends Exclusive Conference for Financial Advisors

Bill Rice, Owner of Laurel Highlands Financial Services, in Somerset PA, was invited to gather with a group of prominent financial advisors at Commonwealth Financial Network®'s Founder's Club, held April 19–23, 2017, in Boca Raton, Florida. The Founder's Club conference recognizes highly successful advisors, based on annual production* rankings among Commonwealth's nationwide network of 1,710 financial: Commonwealth is the nation's largest privately held independent broker/dealer–RIA and the broker/dealer of choice for Mr. Rice.

A variety of business meetings and informative sessions spanned the four-day conference, where attendees gained compelling insights, best practices, and recommendations from industry leaders. Numerous networking sessions and opportunities for interacting with peers allowed like-minded advisors to connect and share ideas. Overall, the conference emphasized providing the highest level of service, value, and commitment to the participants' clients.

“We were pleased to host Bill at Founder's Club, and we commend him for his continued commitment to strengthening the core of Laurel Highlands Financial Services,” said Wayne Bloom, CEO of Commonwealth. “By participating in this conference, Bill pledges to evolve within his profession and remain dedicated to providing the exceptional independent financial guidance and education his clients depend on.”
